First Presbyterian Church,
York, Pa.

The First Presbyterian Church of York is one of the imposing landmarks of the city. The congregation was formed in 1759. The present building was constructed in 1865. Within the Churchyard is buried James Smith, Signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Place

2¢

Stamp Here